

THE NATIONAL SMALL INDUSTRIES CORPORATION LIMITED

Rule 5(2) of Companies (CSR Policy) Amended Rules, 2021 - Annual Action Plan for the Financial Year 2023-24

CSR Budget for the Financial Year 2023-24: Rs. 2.85 crore (Provisional)

Sr. No.	Timeline s	Name of the project	Location of the project	Item No. Covered under Schedule VII of Companies Act, 2013
1	2	3	4	5
	April 2023-March 2024	NSIC proposes to undertake Permitted CSR Activities covered under Schedule VII of the Companies Act 2013 wherever and whenever necessary subject to the approval of the Board and the Competent Authority. CSR Implementation would be under DPE Guidelines and NSIC Field Offices shall be coordinating office to empanel these Implementing agencies.	The company shall give preference to the local area and the areas around it where it operates (MCA General Circular No. 06/2018 dated 28.05.2018.). CSR activities may be taken up by the company within the country shall make conscious efforts to make equitable contribution to all geographical locations with emphasis on backward areas / Aspirational Districts, as notified by Niti Ayog to the extent possible. (As per the provision of section 135(5) of Companies Act, 2013).	Activities covered under Item No. (i) to (xii) of Schedule VII of Companies Act, 2013 from
6	Manner of Execution :		As per the mechanism prescribed under CSR policy.
7	Modalities of Utilisation of funds :		As per the mechanism prescribed under CSR policy.
8	Implementation Schedule :		As per the mechanism prescribed under CSR policy
9	Monitoring & Reporting :		As per the mechanism prescribed under CSR policy
10	Details of need & Impact Assessment, if any :		As per the mechanism prescribed under CSR policy.
NOTE:- (1) 60% of Annual CSR Expenditure of NSIC will be spent in thematic programme ("Health & Nutrition" for the financial year 2023-24) as per DPE guidelines dated 10.12.2018 and as per the letter 24th April, 2023. (2) CSR Activities as mentioned under Schedule VII of Companies Act, 2013 shall be undertaken either by Head Office or NSIC Branch Offices wherever and whenever necessary subject to approval from the Board and the Competent Authority.				